The Hadji Temple #61 Shrine Chanters, known professionally as The Royal Serenaders, performed at the Doris A. Young auditorium at Deaconess in early April. The free concert, held for skilled nursing residents, families, friends, staff and members of the local community was sponsored by the Foundation for The Buffalo General Hospital Inc.

This is from an apparent publication of Buffalo General Hospital (Deaconess) called PulseBeat. The text below the picture is in faint light blue and not very legible, so it is copied below for your convenience.
